On our adventure we might discover...

Otters and Foxes are exploring everything that makes them, them! There is more to us humans than meets the eye. Can the children discover something new about themselves and their class mates?

- How have they changed since they were babies?
- What would happen if we didn't have any bones?
- What are our senses and how important are they?
- How can we create a self portrait?
- What makes us unique?

Our Adventure Starts...

With a puzzle to complete! Can you find all the pieces to work out what we are learning about first?
