Respecting others

- To respect and listen to each other's views, opinions and ideas.
- To be kind, friendly and thoughtful.
- To love how we are all different.
- To follow rules and explain how to keep us safe.
- To talk about something that is happening in the news.

Our Exploration Backpack (Essential Curriculum Skills)

I can compare and contrast the work of others

I can share my views and opinions with others

I can modify and improve a product throughout construction

I know the properties of materials and select appropriate materials for the task

I know and follow the safety code

I can create and test and improve a set of instructions to make things happen

On our adventure we might discover...

Is everything as it appears? We will investigate whether a monster is always truly a monster—can they change their ways? Time, space and distance will help us answer these questions:

- What makes a monster?
- Why are we afraid of monsters?
- Have monsters always looked the same?
- Are monsters confined to Earth?
- How do we survive monster weather?
