

Handwriting

The handwriting scheme we use at Godinton is a cursive scheme. Children begin by learning the letter formation for each letter and as they become more experienced then go on to join letters together.

Below you can see the letter formation for each lower case letter. All letters begin on the line.

