

Areas of learning for children assessed as working below year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can highlight appropriate information which describes a character.
- I can read and understand a text in order to pose questions about its content.
- I can empathise with a character and the way in which they are feeling.
- I am beginning to recognise key themes in what I have read.
- I am beginning to talk about the effects of different words and phrases to create different images and atmosphere (powerful verbs, descriptive adjectives and adverbs).
- I can usually read a range of appropriate texts with fluency and accuracy.

Year 5 Coverage for Reading

Autumn Term 1 2018–19

Areas of learning for children assessed as working at year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can discuss a characters' personality based on evidence.
- I am able to gather and deduce information about characters.
- I can analyze a character in different ways, referring to the text.
- I can recognise and discuss key themes in what I have read.
- I can comment on how an author has used language and its effect upon the reader.
- I can read a range of appropriate texts fluently and accurately, including exception words.

Areas of learning for children assessed as working above year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can recognise how language illustrates setting and character.
- I can use reasoning, opinion and carefully considered evidence to describe a character more fully.
- I can analyse a character in different ways, referring to the text and giving examples.
- I can use evidence from a text to support a point of view.
- I can comment on how an author's use of language creates an effect upon the reader and shows the writer's point of view.
- I can read aloud with pace, fluency and expression, taking punctuation and author's intent into account.

Areas of learning for children assessed as working below year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can write in role as a character.
- I can use a growing number of conjunctions to join words in sentences e.g. but, if, because, when.
- I attempt to maintain past or present tense.
- I am beginning to recognise the difference between formal and informal writing.
- I am able to identify temporal (time) conjunctions and use them in my writing to show the order of events.
- I use sentence demarcation with a good amount of accuracy, including capital letters, full stops, question marks and exclamation marks; commas to separate items in lists, and sometimes for fronted adverbials.

Year 5 Coverage for Writing

Autumn Term 1 2018-19

Areas of learning for children assessed as working at year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can write in role as a character using words to describe how a character feels.
- I vary sentence openers, changing the pronoun e.g. He/Jim, or with a fronted adverbial e.g. Later that day, he...
- I usually use the past or present tense and first or third person consistently across a piece of writing.
- I am experimenting with both formal and informal writing, with guidance.
- I use sentence demarcation mostly accurately, including capital letters, full stops, question marks and exclamation marks; commas to separate items in lists, and for fronted adverbials.

Areas of learning for children assessed as working above year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can write in role as a character using different sentence lengths for effect.
- I can write a range of sentence types which are grammatically accurate, including sentences with more than one clause.
- I maintain the correct tense and person across a piece of writing.
- I choose vocabulary to suit formal and informal writing, with guidance.
- I use sentence demarcation accurately including capital letters, full stops, question marks and exclamation marks; commas to separate items in lists, and for fronted adverbials.

Areas of learning for children assessed as working below year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can recognise the place value of each digit in up to 4 digit numbers and use this knowledge to compare and order numbers beyond 1000.
- I am beginning to be able to round any number to the nearest 10 or 100.
- I am beginning to add and subtract numbers with up to 4 digits using formal written methods of columnar addition and subtraction.
- I can read Roman numerals to 100.
- I can count backwards through zero to include negative numbers.
- I can solve number and practical problems that involve all of the above.

Year 5 Coverage for Maths

Autumn Term 1 2018–19

Areas of learning for children assessed as working at year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can read, write and order numbers to at least 1,000,000 and determine the value of each digit.
- I can round any 4 digit number to the nearest 10, 100, 1,000.
- I can add and subtract numbers with 4 digits using formal written methods of columnar addition and subtraction.
- I can read Roman numerals to 1,000.
- I can interpret negative numbers in context, count forwards and backwards including through zero.
- I can solve addition and subtraction multi-step problems that involve all of the above.

Areas of learning for children assessed as working above year group expectations for this point in the academic year.

- I can read, write, order and compare numbers to at least 1,000,000 and determine the value of each digit and use this understanding to reason and explain answers.
- I can add and subtract whole numbers with more than 4 digits using a range of calculation strategies including using formal written methods (column addition and subtraction).
- I can read Roman numerals to 1,000.
- I can interpret negative numbers in context, count forwards and backwards including through zero.
- I can apply my understanding to solve increasingly complex problems and reason and explain my thinking.