

Butterflies and Ladybirds' Learning Adventure

Terms 3 and 4

Our Guiding Stars

(Learning skills)

Respecting others

- To respect and listen to each other's views, opinions and ideas.
- To be kind, friendly and thoughtful.
- To love how we are all different.
- To follow rules and explain how to keep us safe.
- To talk about something that is happening in the news.

What's that smell?

Our Exploration Backpack (Essential Curriculum Skills)

I can answer questions about what has happened in the past by looking in books, at pictures and objects.

I know why some events happened and can talk about them.

I can show my learning in different ways (including the use of ICT)

I can describe what art makes me think about.

I can make sounds to create different moods.

I can create music and write it down with my own symbols.

On our adventure we might discover...

Butterflies and Ladybirds are travelling back to the 16th and 17th centuries...

- Does this time hold any secrets, disasters or miraculous events?
- What was it like living in the time of the Elizabethans and the Stuarts? What did people wear? What jobs did they do?
- What did they eat? What were the houses like? Did children go to school?
- What evidence can we find to tell us about the past?

Our Adventure Starts...

With a mystery...

What could be making those smells and who could have left this diary here?

An adventure highlight...
