

Comparing Places

The Caribbean and the UK

Where in the World?

The Caribbean

The Caribbean is a group of islands and reefs in the Caribbean Sea.

United Kingdom

The United Kingdom is made up of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. It is in the Atlantic Ocean.

Weather in the Caribbean

- The weather in the Caribbean changes over the year. The Caribbean has different seasons of weather.
- In the winter (December, January and February), there is very little rainfall. On average, there is between 5cm to 8cm of rain each month. The average temperature is around 25 degrees Celsius.
- The spring months of March, April and May start to get hotter, with average temperatures of 30 degrees Celsius. There is also more rainfall, with many islands having an average 13cm of rain per month.
- In summer (June, July and August), both the temperature and the rainfall continue to increase. Average temperatures go up to around 35 degrees Celsius, and the average rainfall is around 25cm per month.
- The autumn sees some of the most unpredictable weather in the Caribbean. The hurricane season runs from June until November, but September and October are the peak months for hurricane activity. The temperature and rainfall is the same as it is in the spring.

Weather in the UK

- The weather in the UK also follows a seasonal pattern, but it is different to the weather pattern in the Caribbean.
- The winter usually sees the coldest weather. It is cold, wet and it sometimes snows. The average winter temperature 3 degrees Celsius, and the average rainfall is about 5cm.
- In spring, the weather turns milder. It can still be wet and windy, especially in April. The average temperature is 11 degrees Celsius and the average rainfall is 5cm.
- In summer (June, July and August), the weather gets warmer. Average temperatures go up to around 19 degrees Celsius and the average rainfall is around 4.5 cm.
- The autumn sees the weather turn colder and wetter. The average temperature is 13 degrees Celsius and the average rainfall is about

Caribbean Fruit

breadfruit

custard apple

plantain

guava

papaya

mango

coconuts

A stylized world map is centered on the page. The map is composed of white lines on a light green background, showing the outlines of continents and a grid of latitude and longitude lines. The map is framed by a thick green border.

UK Fruit

strawberries

apples

blackcurrants

pears

cherries

plums

gooseberries

Caribbean Houses

The background of the slide is a vibrant green. Overlaid on this is a white line-art map of the United Kingdom, including the main islands and surrounding waters. The map is composed of a network of white lines that define the geographical features. In the center of the map, the text 'UK Houses' is written in a large, bold, black sans-serif font.

UK Houses

Caribbean Beaches

UK Beaches

