

On the table below, you will find useful online links to supplement learning at home. This includes sites offering interactive resources, video clips, games or other resources that can be used at home.

Please note that whilst all sites have been checked by school staff, website content can change. Parents should check all sites before they are used by the children and ensure that suitable filters are in place on all devices.

Website or app	Information and details for parents
The Woodland Trust https://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/blog/2020/03/kids-nature-activities-self-isolation/	The Woodland Trust have a great selection of activities to get the children enjoying the outdoors. This link takes you directly to a blog they have written specifically for self-isolation. These are all activities that can be completed in a garden or local park. You can also find links to further activities within the blog. No sign up needed to access the activities on the blog.
The RSPB https://www.rspb.org.uk/fun-and-learning/for-kids/games-and-activities/activities/	This section of the RSPB website has some great ideas to get the children making things and thinking about the environment around them. There is also the option for children to sign up for free to the 'Wild Challenge'. These activities are great for children that love getting stuck into a project.
The National Trust – 50 things to do before you're 11 ½ https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/50-things-to-do	The activities are free to use and no sign-up is required. There are suggestions of 50 outdoor activities and guides on how they could be completed.