

Geography Task:

There are lots of different homes in the traditional tales you have read.
What type of home do you live in?

Draw a picture and write a description of the house you live in!

Homes in Traditional Tales

Types of Home – Do you live in one of these?

A bungalow is a low home on one level.

A terraced house is a home that stands in a row and shares walls with other similar looking homes.

semi-detached

A semi-detached home is a house that shares one side wall with a similar looking home.

detached

A detached home is a house that stands alone.

flats

A flat is a home within a larger building.