

Character description helpsheet

Remember when you write your story, the reader doesn't know what the characters look like. Like we did in Krindlekrax, draw your characters with descriptions. Here's an example we completed in class last year.

Let's describe this character.
Use amazing adjectives, similes, metaphors....
Don't forget her personality too!

as brown as chocolate

as bright as the sun shining on the trees

as dark as chocolate

her cheeks are as
red as roses

Always has her trusted magnifying glass to hand.

eyes as green as
grass/emeralds/as a
bush

eyes as green as
emerald green trees
dancing in the wind

as curly as blowing wind caramel choc. cake

she always wore her
favourite caramel
coloured
detective coat

Hard working

brown, shiny boots