

Rationing Timeline

Below are a list of key dates and information on when rationing on certain products began. Create your own timeline displaying these events.

January 1940 –
Rationing of bacon,
butter and sugar.

July 1941 – Coal was rationed because miners
were called up to serve

1939 – World War Two
began.

March 1941 – Jam was rationed.

1945 – World War Two
ended.

1939 – Petrol
rationing.

June 1941 – Clothing
rationing began.

March 1940 – Tea and
margarine were
rationed.

1942 – Rice and dried
fruit were rationed.

July 1942 – Sweets
and chocolate were
rationed!

1954 – Food rationing
ended.

March 1942 – coal, gas
and electricity were
rationed.

February 1942 – Soap
was rationed so oil
could be saved for food

March May 1941 –
Cheese was rationed.

1943 – Sausages were
rationed.

Do you know any other key dates you could add to your timeline?