

The Great Fire Of London

Read the information using the link, then tick the right box.

	True	False
The fire started on Sunday the 2 nd of September.
The fire started in a bakery on Pudding Lane.
The houses were made of bricks.
The streets were very narrow.
The fire spread very slowly.
Samuel Pepy's kept a diary of events.
The fire broke out in 1998.
St Paul's cathedral was destroyed.
The weather had been hot and dry and this helped the fire to spread.
People tried to escape on boats across the river Thames.
St Paul's cathedral was never re-built.		