

Falcons and Eagles' Learning Adventure

Terms 5 and 6

Our Guiding Stars

(Learning skills)

Paradise Found

Our Exploration Backpack (Essential Curriculum Skills)

I can use language and features in order to persuade the reader

I can manage different levels of formality in my writing

I can make comparisons between different counties and cultures

I can suggest how to improve my own work

I can explain how the features of a place will affect the activities that happen there

I can explain how places are interdependent

I can compare and contrast distant places

I can use atlases to find out about different places

I can add to, amend and combine information from a variety of sources

I know and follow the internet safety code

On our adventure we might discover...

- * The geographical features of Central America
- * How luxury resorts persuade holidaymakers to visit their piece of paradise
- * What life was like for the ancient Maya
- * What the 'Three Sisters' are
- * All about Fairtrade

Eagles and Falcons will be immersing themselves in the sights, sounds and tastes of Central America and the Maya civilisation. They will be exploring various forms of persuasive writing, as well as discovering about the music, food, culture and history of the area.

Our Adventure Starts...

With a treasure hunt—will you find the treasures?

An adventure highlight...

Designing and creating models of the field
system that the ancient Maya used.

Our Explosive Ending

A Maya Feast!