

Read the poem from Nesbitt; Betty Met a Yeti. You need to circle the correct spelling in the brackets and then answer the questions.

Betty Met a Yeti

Betty met a (yeti, yetti, yettee)
in the mountains of Tibet.
She cooked him some (spagetti, spaghetti, spaghetti)
and she baked him a baguette.
And when the food was ready
and the dishes all were set,
the yeti (swallowed, wolloed, swallowwed)
Betty
and said “Mmmm, the best one yet”.

So that's the end of Betty.
but you needn't be (upset, upsett, upsset)
unless you meet a yeti
in the mountains of Tibet.
Then just stay calm and (steddy, steady, stedy).
Don't be nervous. Don't you fret.
And don't cook him spaghetti or, who knows what you might get?

- Kenn Nesbitt

Answer the questions below:

1. Where did Betty meet the yeti?
2. What did Betty cook the yeti?
3. What did Betty bake the yeti?
4. What did the yeti say after swallowing Betty?
5. If you met the yeti, what would you cook him and why?