

Music in Focus

Year 4 composers in action! The children are working in pairs to compose their own piece of music, deciding which instruments to use where, depending on their sounds. Once they were happy with their idea, they recorded the notation down.

Year 2 using the xylophones to create their own composition and record the notation.

