

Ladybirds and Butterflies Homework Trail (Term 3 2023)

Weekly homework tasks

Reading

Read or share a book at least five times a week. This could be your school reading book, a monster phonics e-book or a book from home.

Mathletics

Tasks will be set on Mathletics every week. You can use the games and challenges available on Mathletics as often as you like. The more, the better! Practice the times tables facts that have been sent home.

Spellings

Practice the sounds or spellings that have been sent home.

Have a look at and learn the words list from your spelling list in your reading record and practice regularly.

Off on the trail...

You must complete three squares in a row, passing vertically, horizontally or diagonally through the middle square.

Design or make a new shop sign for the bakery on Pudding Lane. Explain why you have chosen the images on your sign.	What would you do in London for a day? Write about your ideal day and illustrate this.	Create a piece of art work that shows London during the great fire.
Design your own information poster all about the Great Fire of London.	Pretend you are a Londoner during the time of the Great Fire of London. Write a letter to your parents telling them about the day you escaped the fire.	Write a poem based on the Great Fire of London. Can you use your senses?
Compare how fires were tackled in 1666 to firefighting today. You could use images, drawings or a paragraph. Use comparative conjunctions like however, therefore, although or but.	Design or make an apron for a baker. Label the materials will you use and explain why you chose them? Think about the purpose of a baker's apron.	Write a biography (life story) about some of the important people who were caught up in this historical event.

The Extra Mile...

Can you complete any 6 squares on the grid to get your Extra Mile sticker.

Homeward Bound...Record all your homework in your homework book.

You do not need to bring in your homework each week to be checked. We will be holding a Trail End Homework Showcase in class on Tuesday 21st February 2023 when you can share your homework with the class and celebrate your hard work.
