

Ladybirds and Butterflies Homework Trail (Term 4 2025)

Weekly homework tasks

Reading

Read or share a book at least five times a week. This could be your school reading book or a book from home.

Mathletics

Tasks will be set on Mathletics every week. You can use the games and challenges available on Mathletics as often as you like. The more, the better! Practise the times tables facts that have been sent home.

Spellings

Have a look at and learn the words from the back of your reading record and practise regularly. Have a look at the high frequency word lists that can be found on the school website. Select the list that contains words that you know you need to practise to enhance your writing.

Off on the trail...

You must complete three squares in a row, passing vertically, horizontally or diagonally through the middle square.

Create your own shape poem for the Great Fire of London. What shapes could you use?

Florence Nightingale is our class hero. What can you find out about her? Why is she an important figure in history? How will you present your information?

Build a bridge to cross the River Thames. Is it steady enough to carry a toy car?

Draw, sketch or paint a picture of Samuel Pepys.

Pretend that you are witnessing the Great Fire of London and write a news report or a diary entry for each day that the fire blazed through the city.

Explore or draw a map of London, before and after the fire. How has it changed? Can you draw a before and after map or show some landmark buildings around the Thames? How did they change?

What landmarks do you recognise in London today? Can you recreate one using lego or junk modelling etc? Take a photo for your book and explain how you made it.

Can you find out about what nursing was like in 1853 for Florence Nightingale? Why was she called the 'Lady of the lamp?' What did she change for nurses? Present a fact poster using pictures, drawings and fact boxes.

Create a list of questions to ask a fire fighter from 1666. What do you want to find out?
Remember to use a ?

The Extra Mile...

Can you complete any 6 squares on the grid to get your Extra Mile sticker.

Homeward Bound...Record all your homework in your homework book.

You do not need to bring in your homework each week to be checked. We will be holding a Trail End Homework Showcase in class on Wednesday 23rd April when you can share your homework with the class and celebrate your hard work.
