

Eagles and Falcons' Homework Trail (Term 1 2025–2026)

Weekly homework tasks

Reading

Read for at least 10 minutes every day. This could be your school reading book or a book from home.

Mathletics and Times Tables

Tasks will set on Mathletics each week. You can use the games and challenges available on Mathletics as often as you like. The more, the better!

Practice your times tables, ready for your weekly test.

Spellings

Have a look at the high frequency word lists that can be found on the school website. Select a list that contains words that you know you need to practise to enhance your writing.

Off on the trail...

You must complete three squares in a row, passing vertically, horizontally or diagonally through the middle square.

This term our hero is Ellie Simmonds . Research and find out about her. What were her achievements? Why do you think she has been chosen as one of our Year Group Heroes?	Draw or paint a picture or scene from the Medieval times, e.g. typical town life, the royal court, a Medieval church service.	Spend time with your family. Write and take photos of a journey you make together. This could be a journey of any length to any place.
Write a diary entry for a child living in a medieval town. Talk about life in the town, how you spend your day, how you feel and any other specific things that you experience.	Research and write an account about a famous explorer (past or present) and the journey they have made. Include a map of the route that they took.	Create a piece of 3-D artwork based on the theme of 'Journey of Discovery'.
Carry out a science or technology experiment looking at movement or change. Useful ideas: https://sciencebob.com/category/experiments	Write a poem inspired by the theme 'Journey of Discovery'.	Design an outfit for a knight, a baron or a peasant to wear in the Medieval era.

The Extra Mile...

Can you complete any 6 squares on the grid to get your Extra Mile sticker.

Homeward Bound...Record all your homework in your homework book.

You do not need to bring in your homework each week to be checked. We will be holding a Trail End Homework Showcase in class on Tuesday, 4th November when you can share your homework with the class and celebrate your hard work.
