Eagles and Falcons' Homework Trail (Term 2 2026-2027)

Weekly homework tasks

Reading

Read for at least 10 minutes, three times a week. This could be your school reading book or a book from home.

Mathletics and Time Tables

Tasks will set on Mathletics each week. You can use the games and challenges available on Mathletics as often as you like. The more, the better! Practice the times tables facts that have been sent home.

Spellings

Learn the words that are sent home each week. Have a look at the high frequency word lists that can be found on the school website. Select the list that contains words that you know you need to practise to enhance your writing.

Off on the trail...

You must complete three squares in a row, passing vertically, horizontally or diagonally through the middle square.

Create a Top Trumps game with famous people from medieval Britain. Perhaps Chaucer will have the most points for creativity or Becket for the most loved. You could include the characters from The Canterbury Tales	Design a theme park You have a budget of £100,000. Tasks: Build rides with given costs. Calculate total spending. Work out ticket income. Find profits and losses.	Choose a story from the Canterbury Tales, draw a series of stained glass windows to show key elements / events from the story.
Choose a book that you have enjoyed reading at home. Create a book recommendation for a friend, including title, author, genre, quick summary, your favourite part (and why) and add a star rating, explaining who would enjoy this book and why.	Write a letter from William Harvey to a friend, describing his journey towards discovering the circulation of the blood.	Create a piece of artwork on the circulation of the blood. This could be 2D or 3D.
Look at how transport has changed over time. Choose one form of transport and compare the past with the present, draw a time line or focus on one type.	Choose an historic place in Kent (other than Canterbury) to research. Produce a piece of work describing how it has changed since medieval times.	Write a diary entry from the perspective of one of the characters from the Canterbury Tales. Describe your journey to Canterbury Cathedral.

The Extra Mile...

Can you complete any 6 squares, including the centre, on the grid to get your Extra Mile sticker?

Homeward Bound...

Record all your homework in your homework book. You do not need to bring in your homework each week to be checked. We will be holding a Trail End Homework Showcase in class on Tuesday 5th January 2027 when you can share your homework with the class and celebrate your hard work.
